MOSES WILLIAM JEWETT 5

The son of Jessie (3) and Abigail (CRAFTS) Jewett, he was born at Whately in 1830 and died of paralysis in Whately on 5 Feb. 1891. He built the large Victorian house on the west side of Chestnut Plain, south of the Congregational Church. <sup>44</sup> James M. Crafts, in the Crafts family history, wrote that he was engaged for some time in “whale fishing, then was a soldier in the Civil War and returned in poor health. <sup>45</sup> His Civil War service was with a Connecticut regiment, and he is not included in the list of Whately soldiers. At some time he was committed to a hospital and upon his release his wife agreed to support him at a price of $3.50 per week. <sup>46</sup> He made a will that is undated, but it was witnessed by a physician suggesting it was made about the time of death. <sup>47</sup> He made a bequest of $500 to Mary A. Jewett “whom I took in her infancy as my own child”. He left the rest and residue of his estate to “my faithful, devoted and self-sacrificing wife, Almira Wells Jewett”. He married Almira, daughter of Chester and Hannah (Bardwell) WELLS (16) of Whately. She was born in 1825 and died of “natural causes”, 23 Sept. 1909. <sup>48</sup> She made a brief will on 1 July 1909 leaving her estate to “Mary A. White who has lived with me since she was a small child and has been as a daughter to me.” <sup>49</sup>

Mary Agnes, was born in 1866 and belonged to Moses and Almira “by verbal adoption.” Her birth name is not known. There is a marriage record in Northampton for Mary Jewett and James Johnson in 1890 but each column of the record has been marked with a large X. Mary’s son William was born as William Johnson and she is called Mary Johnson in the birth records of her daughters Mabel and Mildred, but in 1900 she was enumerated as Mary White, age 28, divorced, and living in Whately with Almira and Mary’s four children. William was probably the son of James Johnson and Frederick White is named as the father of Pearl and Mildred.

William, born 3 Nov. 1891. <sup>50</sup> His birth is in the name of William Johnson and his mother is Mary Jewett. No father was listed.

Pearl, born in Whately on 15 Sept. 1893. <sup>51</sup> The entry originally read “no name” but was corrected to Pearl Elizabeth White, by affidavit, 25 July 1955 or 1965. The name of her father, Fred White was added at that time. She m. Anthony Ladone and was possibly an inmate in the Connecticut State Prison in Wethersfield in 1930, in which record she was called married. In 1940 she was divorced and living alone in Hartford.

Mable, b. 29 May 1896 in Whately and d. Feb. 1987 in Mt. Dora, Florida. <sup>52</sup> The child in the birth record was nameless and the record says only “female illegitimate.” <sup>53</sup> Her mother was named as Mary Johnson. Mable married (1) Arnold Widmer of Williamsburg and (2) Raymond Northrope of Florida.

Mildred, b. 27 Aug. 1899 in Whately, <sup>54</sup> and d. June 1977. <sup>55</sup> The birth record gives her parents as Mary Jewett and Frederick White.. She m. Joseph Ladone, the brother of her sister’s husband.

Although her grave annotation says that Lucinda was born in Whately, it is more likely Williamsburg. The daughter of Oliver, she was born in 1795 and died in Haydenville, 14 Nov. 1872.<sup>195</sup> Crafts mentions that William was a carpenter but does not include that he was an important bridge architect and builder and “under the supervision of Captain Damon superintended the construction of all the large bridges constructed or rebuilt on the larger streams and rivers of the Connecticut Valley”.<sup>196 197</sup>

JAMES LULL

Crafts names him John but the records of his daughters Hannah and Persis call the parents James and Beulah (Reed) Lull. He lived on Poplar Hill in West Whately “but a few years.” Their daughter Sarah, born about 1764 (unsourced on the internet) or 1768 (by age at death) married Consider WAITE (18) of Whately and died of “childbed fever”, 1 June 1796, aged 28. <sup>223</sup> The death record says simply “Mrs Wait” without a given name. Their daughter Hannah was born about 1770 and married Seth Field of Hatfield. She died at an unknown date. Their daughter Persis, born 1773, married Festus FRARY of Whately and died in Aug. 1830 in Otsego, New York. <sup>224</sup> Caution is needed because Crafts writes that it was Persis who married Consider Waite.

ZEBINA LYON

Crafts wrote that Zebina came to Whately about 1780. His parents are not known. His wife Lydia died of dropsy in Whately 24 August 1789. <sup>225</sup> He was enumerated in Whately in 1790 but his children were born elsewhere. Crafts lists six children with details for Lydia.

Lydia, b. in 1763, d. in 1837. <sup>226</sup> She m. Reuben GRAVES (46) of Whately.

Lemuel, b. 1765 and d. 7 Jan. 1833. <sup>227</sup> He m. Jerusha Daniels

Arunah, b. 1775 and d. 7 June 1854 in Waterbury, Vermont. <sup>228</sup> He m. Ruth Rumhill

Melinda, b. and d. at an unknown date and place. She m. Erastus GRAVES (81) of Whately although at the time of the marriage, 6 June 1798 <sup>229</sup> Erastus was recorded as a resident of Middlefield and Melinda a resident of Whately.

Samuel, no supporting records found but records for Lemuel and Samuel are muddled and they are perhaps the same person.
