1777 or near that time. He appeared free from spirits. In the afternoon of the same day he was at the aforesaid Mr. Bragg's again. I saw Brother Smith with a cup in his hand, very merry. I saw him stand against the door frame; his speech, his eyes, his countenance appeared like a person who had drank too freely. About half an hour after that I saw Brother Smith lying in a ditch about 12 rods distant from the house of Abiel Bragg. This matter occupied the church for more than a week with interesting testimony from others including Abiel Bragg. Philip married Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel Graves of Sunderland. She was born in 1734 and died in 1813.<sup>23</sup> Philip and Elizabeth had ten children:

Lucinda, b. 1759 and died 29 Aug. 1835.<sup>24</sup> She m. Philo BACON of Whately.

PAUL SMITH 7

The son of Elisha (4) and Sarah (SMITH) Smith, he was born at Whately in 1734 and died of dropsy, in Whately, 31 Aug. 1798.<sup>29</sup> He was a Revolutionary War soldier. He made a will on 6 Aug. 1798 naming 13 children to whom he gave $1.00 each. This is equivalent to a bit less than $20.00 today. He made provision for his wife and gave the rest of the estate to his son, Rufus.<sup>30</sup> He married Elizabeth Smith of Hatfield. They had fifteen children for whom my research was somewhat unproductive. It is known, however, that Paul and three of his sons were participants in Shay's Rebellion and afterwards signed the Oath of Allegiance in Whately. They were Adna, Rufus and John. Anyone interested in this family will dig deeper.

Adna, b. 1760 and has his own entry (21)

SILAS SMITH 8

The son of Elisha (4) and Sarah (SMITH) Smith, he was born at Whately in 1736 and died of diabetes, in Whately, in 1805.<sup>37</sup> He was a Revolutionary War soldier. He married Lavinia Houghton of Sterling, Massachusetts. She was born in 1739 and died in Whately in 1818.<sup>38</sup> The cause of death is not legible. Silas and Lavinia had seven children:

Lavinia, b. about 1770 (age 80 in 1850 and age 90 in 1860) and d. after 1860 when she was living with her son Chancy in Fairview, Pennsylvania. She was called "Lovina" in both 1850 and 1860. She m. Enos Morton of Amherst. He was not a Whately Morton.

Silas, b. and d. at an unknown date. He m. Fanny, daughter of Noah FIELD of Whately. Crafts said they moved to Buckland, but no supporting records were found. The 1858 death record for him in an online tree is incorrect in my estimation. It is for another man entirely.

JONATHAN SMITH 10

The son of Elisha (4) and Sarah (SMITH) Smith, he was born in Whately 18 Aug. 1742 and died in 7 Feb. 1809.<sup>42</sup> Cause of death is not legible. He was a Revolutionary War soldier. He married (1) Abigail, daughter of Richard CHAUNCEY of Whately. She was born in 1748 and died in 1793.<sup>43</sup> In Nov. of 1794 Jonathan married (2) Hannah Dickinson of Amherst. Note that the index gives the year of the second marriage is 1774 but Abigail did not die until 1793 and examination of the original record suggests 1794 rather than 1774. The Dickinson genealogy muddles things further by giving the date as 1784. Hannah was born about 1748 and died in 1832.<sup>44</sup> Jonathan made his will on 8 July 1808.<sup>45</sup> In it he left his estate to his son Seth stipulating that Seth was to provide for Jonathan's widow, Hannah, and for Elizabeth (Chauncey) Bridgeman, widow of Samuel Bridgeman. This harks back to an earlier agreement between Jonathan and his then brother-in-law, Samuel Bridgeman. Samuel deeded his farm to Jonathan in return for care during his lifetime and that of his wife and Jonathan perpetuated this arrangement in his will. Jonathan had ten children with his first wife.

Jonathan, b. 1770 and has his own entry (26)

Jerusha, b. 6 Oct. 1771 and d. 26 Jan. 1842.<sup>46</sup> She m. (1) Joel Brown and (2), as his second wife, Aaron PRATT of Whately.

Martin, bp. 4 June 1775. He m. Betsey Crittenden of Conway and moved to Ohio where his children were born.

Eunice, bp. 20 June 1779 and d. soon.

David, bp. 29 March 1782 and has his own entry (28)

Seth, bp. 15 March 1784 and has his own entry (29)

Experience, bp. 18 Jan. 1786 and d. 19 Dec. 1842.<sup>48</sup> She m. Obed Dickinson of Amherst.

GAD SMITH 11

The son of Elisha (4) and Sarah (SMITH) Smith, he was born in Whately in 1749 and died 9 Jan. 1827.<sup>50</sup> Although he died and is buried in Charlemont, there is a cenotaph in East Whately.<sup>51</sup> He was a Revolutionary War soldier. He married Irene, daughter of Elisha WAITE (8) of Whately. Irene was the sister of Lucy Waite, wife of Lt. Noah BARDWELL (13) of Whately and the sister of Mary Waite who married Isaiah BROWN (5) of Whately. ### ELIHU SMITH 13

The son of Benjamin (5) and Abigail (SMITH) Smith, Crafts supposed that he was born in Whately in 1761 but no record was found. There is an undocumented internet file which gives him as a son of Oliver Smith, but this appears to be incorrect. In March 1780, in Whately, he married Anna, daughter of Joshua BELDEN (7) of Whately. She was born 22 July 1761 and 5 March 1793.<sup>54</sup> Elihu and Anna had six children, only two born in Whately, the others born in Hadley.

Unnamed, died in May 1780, no cause given. A very early child?

Anna, bp. 25 Aug. 1782 and died on that same date in 1856.<sup>55</sup> Her gravestone says she was born 25 Aug. but it is improbable that she was born and baptized on the same day. She married Calvin MARSH of Whately.

Roswell. Possibly the man b. in 1791, died 18 Oct. 1849, and buried in Concord Ohio.<sup>61</sup>

Caroline, b. about 1793 (by age at death) and d. 4 March 1853 of consumption, in Hadley.<sup>62</sup> She m. John Ackley of Castleton, Vermont in 1815. They were divorced on 11 March 1843 and less

JUSTIN SMITH 32

The son of Gad (11) and Martha (WAITE) Smith, he was born at Whately 28 Sept. 1793 and died of consumption 13 Aug. 1858. <sup>138</sup> Crafts had an obvious typographical error in the entry giving a birth date of 1893 rather than 1793. He was a blacksmith by trade. He married (1) Alinda, sometimes seen as Melinda, daughter of Roswell SMITH (14) of Whately, who died 21 Feb. 1830. The death date comes from Crafts; her stone says only 1830. <sup>139</sup> As her death was three weeks after the birth of her child, it was doubtless connected. Justin married (2) Julia Wing of Savoy. She was born in 1810 and died of dysentery, 1 Sept. 1896, in Whately. <sup>140</sup>

Children of Justin and Alinda:

Chapman, b. 1817 and has his own entry (65)

GILBERT SMITH

He was not related to the other Whately Smiths and a search for his ancestry was not fruitful. The 1880 census for his son Harwood says that Gilbert was born in New York. He married Sabra, daughter of John GRAVES (43) of Whately in 1798 and died in Bethel Vermont on 13 Oct. 1849, aged 73. <sup>294</sup>

She named son John as her executor.

John Stoddard, b. 20 April 1807. By 1850 he was in Hardwick, Vermont with his wife, Sophronia (Perrin) and his widowed mother, Sabra. He died 5 May 1886 and is buried in Hardwick. <sup>299</sup>

She was born in 1796 and died in 1852. <sup>303</sup> The family seemingly did not hold together, and it is clear from Whately records that Harwood suffered from mental instability. On 4 April 1845 he was taken to the Hospital for the Insane in Brattleboro. <sup>304</sup> In 1874 the Town paid Mary Crafts a weekly sum to board Smith. He was not found in any census record until 1880 when he was boarding with George Smith (not a relative) in Whately. Even though none of the family was

The two cemeteries in Barre were searched but no supporting records were found. John and Lydia had six children:
